TRUMP VEHICLE PARADE
SAVE THE DATE

AUGUST 10, 2024 @ 9:00 AM

Begins at Wawa Plaza @ State Rd 44 &
Mission Rd., New Smyrna Beach

820 West Canal St., NSB

For Information - 386 846-8755

ROUTE:

Begin in the Wawa parking lot at Mission Rd and State Rd 44, travel south on Mission Rd to Park Blvd to US1, and go south to Oak Hill. At the blinking light, go left onto East Halifax Ave, make the circle, pass Goodrich Seafood Restaurant, and then go back to US1. Travel US1 through Edgewater and New Smyrna to South St (first street past the airport runway), make a left on Sunset Dr, a left onto Trumbull Bay, then a right onto Fairgreen, a left onto Fairway, left on Wayne Ave., and a right onto US1. Make a right onto Canal St. and back to Wawa parking lot on State Rd. 44.

No passing, stop for red lights, obey the laws!

A MUDDLED RACE

Now it begins in earnest. With Biden dropping out there are two immediate questions:

Will Biden continue as president for the rest of his term?

Will the convention choose Kamala as the presidential nominee ?

Predictably, Republicans are already insisting that a Biden unable to run is a Biden unable to serve. They demand that he step down now, for the good of the country, to be replaced automatically by VP Harris. Equally predictably, Biden will resist. In these uncertain circumstances, it is hard to be sure what will happen, but I judge that the Democrats will support Biden and help him to get through his remaining months in office. But even if Biden leaves office now, that should not be cause for Republican celebration. It is much harder to defeat an incumbent president than it is to defeat a candidate for that office, even the vice president.

As to the replacement nominee, it is most likely that the Democrat convention will follow Biden's endorsement and choose Kamala Harris, with the Party power brokers having a major say as to the vice presidential candidate. As I and many others have pointed out earlier, any nominee other than Kamala would lose access to the $240 million in campaign funds already donated and any non-Kamala nominee other than Michelle Obama would also lose substantial elements of the Democrat base – elements which were already wavering with Biden as the candidate.

So we are all now in for a deluge of legacy media propaganda lauding Biden as one of the greatest of modern presidents who made the most noble sacrifice for the good of the country. At the same time the media will discover and reveal that Kamala is really the nation's "Momala," who was a major effective influence and decision maker behind the scenes in all of Biden's "achievements."

At first blush it might seem that Kamala will be easy to beat, as she has actually accomplished nothing, ran away from the responsibilities given to her, and appears incapable of making a coherent statement. That would be a mistake. Kamala will win a larger number of Black and female votes than Biden would have. She may have trouble with extemporaneous speaking but, as she demonstrated during the Kavanaugh hearings, she can be brutal when on the attack. As noted above, the liberal media will love her. Finally, and it pains me to say this since we conservatives all love Donald Trump, but nationwide, Trump is not a popular candidate. A substantial fraction of the American voting public despises Trump and will vote against him almost no matter who the opposing candidate might be.

Donald Trump should still win re-election and we can still win majorities in both Houses. But Kamala Harris or any other nominee will come out of the August Democrat convention riding a powerful, if contrived, wave of support. She will be harder to defeat than Biden would have been.

For Republicans everywhere, our greatest danger is overconfidence. It hurt us badly in 2022 and even in 2020. The stakes we face, the dangers to our country, are as great or greater with Kamala as they would have been with Joe Biden. In Volusia, in Florida and nationwide, we have to commit to unceasing work throughout the election. If we lose, we will have no one to blame but ourselves.

In this country's hour of trepidation, we must remain positive and faithful to our God, our cause, and our great country. As a nation, we have survived a Revolutionary War, the War of 1812, the Civil War, the Mexican American War, the Spanish American War, two world wars, the Vietnam War, the Cuban Missile Crisis, the Persian Gulf War, the War in Afghanistan, and the War in Iraq. We are still dealing with the War on Terrorism and will win that if we let our military loose on these malcontents.

We also made it through the assassination of Lincoln (R), James A. Garfield (R), William McKinley (R), John F. Kennedy (D), the Vietnam War, the attempts on the lives of Presidents Andrew Jackson, William Howard Taft, Herbert Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry S. Truman, Richard M. Nixon, Jimmy Carter, George H. W. Bush, Gerald Ford, Ronald Reagan, Bill Clinton, George W. Bush, Barack Hussein Obama, Joe Biden, and Donald J. Trump. This country has survived the assassination of Medgar Evers, Malcolm X, Martin Luther King, and Robert F. Kennedy.

We made it through the Civil Rights era, the SLA, the Weather Underground and Watergate. And then we survived the near presidency of Hilliary Clinton and Russia-Russia and lawfare. And then there was Roe v, Wade. Finally, we dealt with the likes of the KKK, Occupy Wall Street, Antifa, and Black Lives Matter. In essence, I believe that the Almighty Father, aka, the Divine One, destined this great republic from its inception to be great and those who have tried their best to redirect this country's destiny have all failed. I have no doubt, they will have to answer to a higher authority, one day, since it seems as though they are not held accountable here in our justice system.

To all others, I say, now is the time to stand up for what you believe in that is aligned with our US Constitution and our religious beliefs. There's no tomorrow, there's no let's fix it the next election, and there's no next time. There's no hoping that we can just all get along, and there's no time for compromising our principles, or submit to the disciples of the Woke Movement, nor should we. As a rock star from Memphis, Tennessee once sang, "It's Now or Never!" That rings true to this day, but I'm afraid, not beyond this next election... Rise all ye faithful! Rise! Now that you have your marching orders, go out and vote the American way-
